TIDEWATER ACADEMY

WAKEFIELD, VIRGINIA
Volume IV

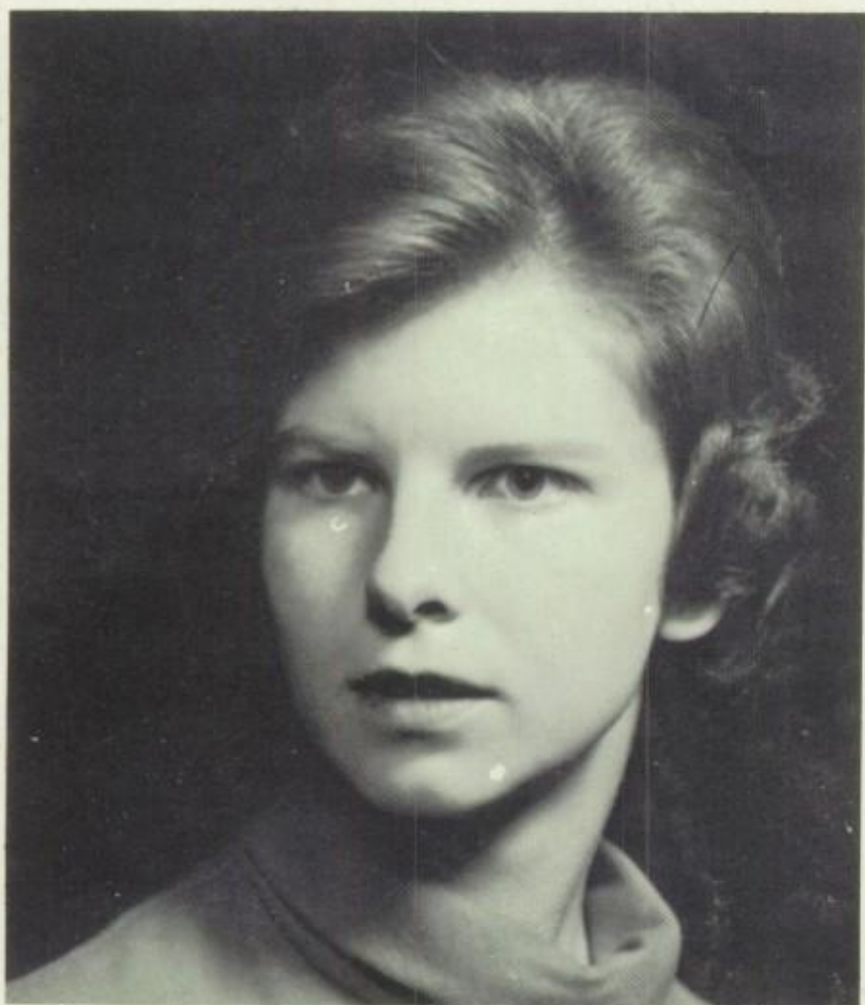

During the past two years, the Art Department has become an important and integral part of student life at Tidewater Academy. Under the guidance of him, the art program in our school has flourished to the extent that we have one of the finest Art Departments to be found in a school of our size.

Throughout the past years, the Junior Classes of Tidewater Academy have looked to him for guidance in planning the prom and each year, thanks to his time and efforts, the prom has been better than the year before.

We, the Senior Class, are particularly grateful to him for all the help we received in planning the Junior-Senior Prom of 1967. In order to partially repay him for all he has done for us, we, the Senior Class of 1968, dedicate the Academian to MR. JAMES E. PITTMAN, JR.

We, the staff of THE 1968 ACADEMIAN, wish to express our appreciation to Mrs. Alice Joyner for the patience and versatility with which she has taught and assisted us during the past four years. She has guided yearbook staffs, directed Choral groups, inspired girls' basketball teams, taught a variety of classes and encouraged us always to be loyal to the ideals of our school.

IN APPRECIATION

To Mrs. Jane Savedge, we wish also to express our appreciation for the way in which she has freely given her time to our school. She has given instruction and worked diligently to make school activities successful. Our music department, under her direction, has received continuous recognition of merit. She has given her talents to preparations for proms and graduations and our high school years have been better because she has been here.

CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1956, twenty-six timid, inquisitive children gathered in Miss Josie's first grade, formally beginning the path to education. These included Cindy Bailey, Janice Bailey, Brenda Beale, Janet Beale, Gayle Boykin, Michael Carden, Susan Carson, Dennis Clark, Florence Clark, Willie Clark, Julie Cole, Cathi Drewry, William Drewry, Arlene Goodrich, Jimmy Hart, Jenny Long, Bobby McEwen, Deanne Morris, Chip Parker, Billy Pittman, Dianne Pond, Susan Pond, Collier Presson, Paul Pursell, Freddy Seeley, and Billy Worrell. During the year we gained Butch Epperson, but lost Michael Carden, Florence Clark, Willie Clark, William Drewry, and Collier Presson.

During the second grade, with Mrs. Morris, we learned "real writing". We gained Roger Atkins, Tony Lowe, and Jeames Turner. At the end of the year we lost Jimmy Hart and Jeames Turner. While in the third grade, we were introduced to poetry by Mrs. Griffin. We gained Amanda Bradshaw and lost Dennis Clark. The next year we were introduced to examinations. We also enjoyed a field trip to Williamsburg. We gained Cynthia Savoy but lost her at the end of the year. Miss Varner's fifth grade was a unique experience. No one will ever forget "Miss Minerva". We gained Linda Hartlass that year.

During the sixth and seventh grades, we were introduced to different teachers in the morning and afternoon. In the sixth grade we were taught by Mr. McTeer and Miss Boothe. We gained Charlotte Carden but lost Butch, Linda and Jenny. In the seventh grade with Miss Boothe and Mrs. Cafazza, we gained Mills Tomlin and Elliotte Williams.

In the fall of 1963, twenty-five of us entered high school. Although we managed to get accustomed to high school without too much confusion, Wakefield High School was no more after that year.

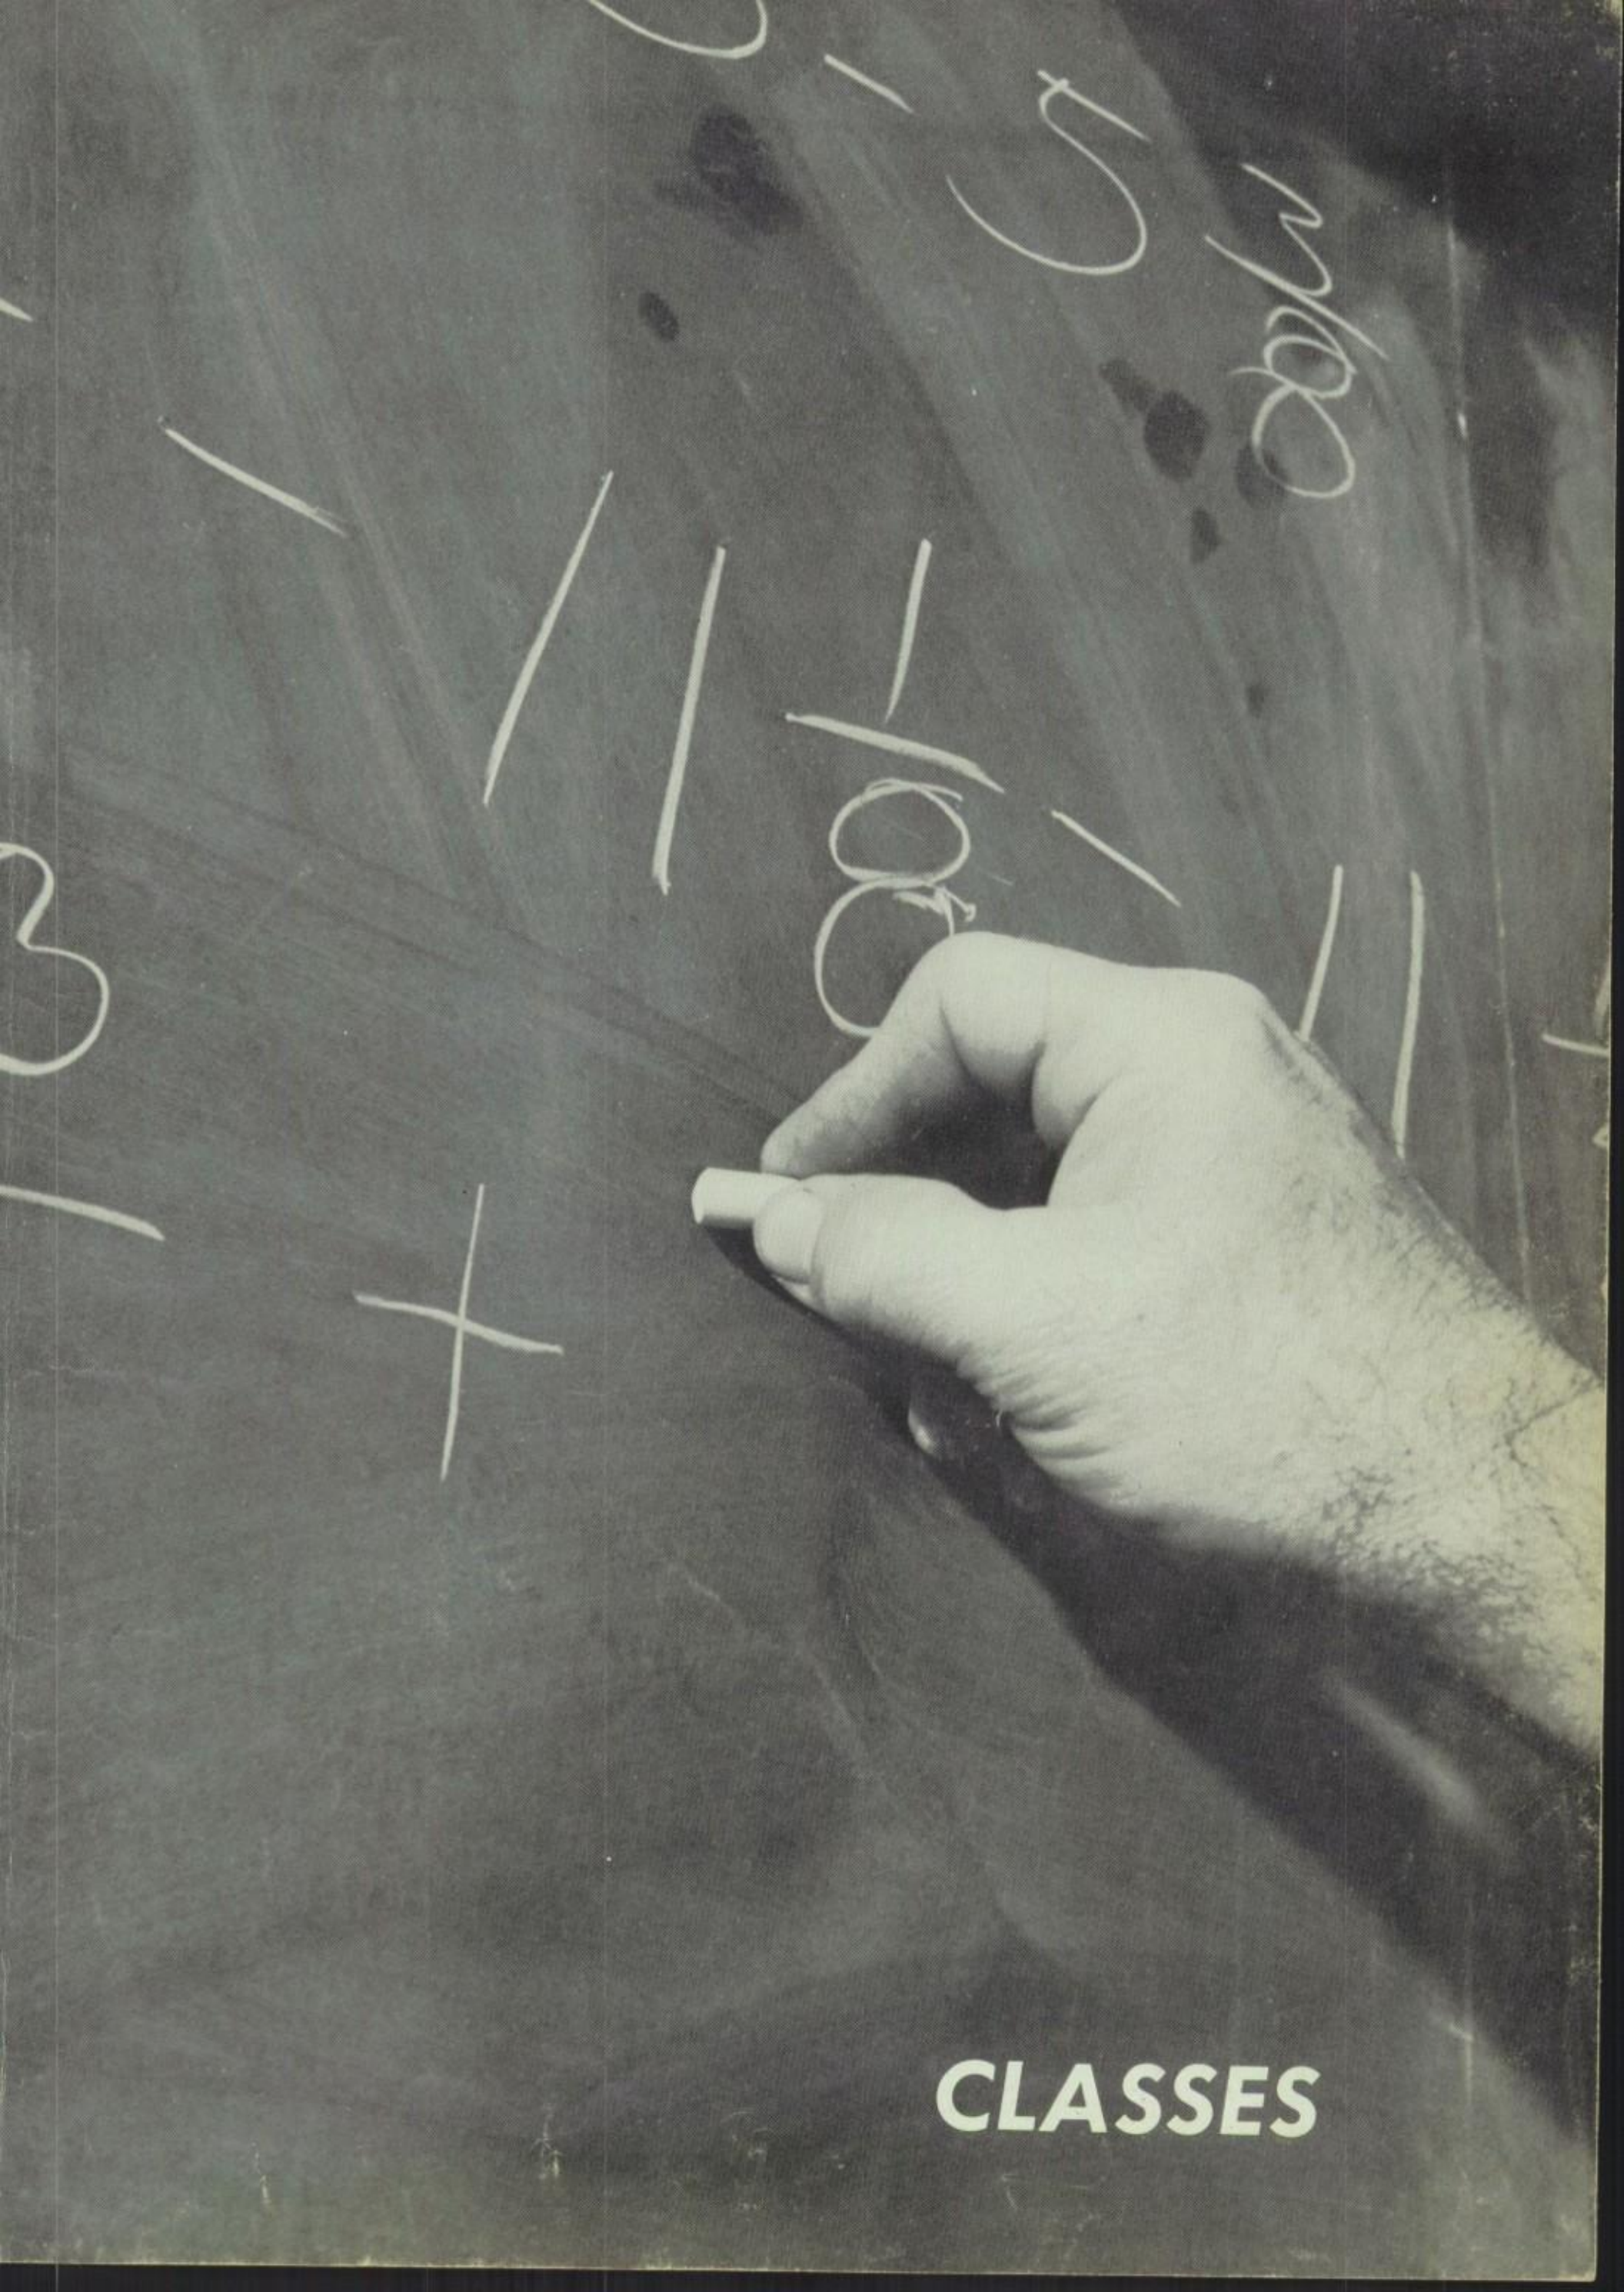

The fall of 1964 was a very important time to us. We began our freshman year in the newly opened Tidewater Academy with fourteen students. They were Brenda Beale, Janet Beale, Gayle Boykin, Julie Cole, Cathi Drewry, Arlene Goodrich, Tony Lowe, Bobby McEwen, Deanne Morris, Chip Parker, Billy Pittman, Paul Pursell, Elliotte Williams, and Billy Worrell. This was the first year of participating in school activities. We took advantage of every opportunity opened to us - Annual Staff, Glee Club, J.V. and Varsity Basketball, and the prom. We had two sock hops with WGH disc jockey, Dave Cummins.

In the tenth grade, we lost Brenda but had gained Cathy Allmond and Sandra White from Surry. We also gained Mariana Lilley, Jimmy Parker, Patsy Pennington, and Sandra Pennington from Stony Creek.

Our junior year we gained Dennis Cox, David Griffin, also David Tudor from Hopewell and Connie Temple of Colonial Heights. This was certainly our busiest year. Most of our time was devoted to the planning and decorating of our prom, "Viennese Serenade" which was held on April 28, 1967. Our decorations were called the most beautiful and elaborate of any prom so far.

Upon entering our senior year, we discovered we had lost Chip Parker and Connie Temple but had gained a transfer from Matoaca, Jim Bowman. Our senior year has been a full one. Many honors have come to us. Cathy Allmond, Janet, Julie, Arlene, Tony, Mariana, Patsy, Sandra, and Billy Pittman are members of the Beta Club. Jim Bowman was recognized as most valuable player in the Christmas Basketball Tournament. Red Griffin was named most valuable player in the VAAC as well as by his own team members. Janet Beale has reigned as Miss Tidewater.

Graduation is not the end of our class history. It continues with each of us wherever we go, whatever we do for we are the class of 1968, Tidewater Academy.

GLEE CLUB

Glee Club activities this year included the Fine Arts Festival, the annual Christmas Concert, programs for the Wakefield Junior Woman's Club, the Petersburg District WSCS and the Wakefield Education Association. After our trip to Prince Edward Academy, we concluded this most active year by providing music for Commencement Exercises.

Glee Club "IN CONCERT" at P.E.A.

The highlight of the year was our first "concert trip" which took us to Prince Edward Academy where we gave an outdoor concert for the student body.

PEP CLUB

PEP CLUB COUNCIL - Red Griffin, Bill Worrell, Chip Parker, Joe Hunnicutt, Richard Simms, Cindy Williams, Patsy Pennington - President, Janet Beale, Johnny Cafazza, Mrs. Jane Savedge - Sponsor.

The club is composed of the cheerleaders, team members and students who wish to promote the winning spirit of Tidewater.
